Dean's Message

Happy October!

I hope you're enjoying this cooler weather and that your choir and personal rehearsals for the fall are all going well.

Last month, the chapter had a nice representation at the David Briggs recital at Trinity Episcopal Church in Danville. The church was completely full, and we had eight chapter members attend. I'd like to personally thank Neva Thompson on her hard work on this. I was unable to attend, but I was told that the reception could only be described as "lavish"!

This month is a very exciting month in the AGO, as we are preparing for our first joint program with the Bluegrass Chapter of the American Theatre Organ Society! Sunday, October 7, both chapters will host theatre organist John Baratta at the Kentucky Theater. He will give a short recital, and then we will all join in a sing-along. The night will end with a silent movie, College. Tickets are $20 and can be purchased from any member of the BG-ATOS, the Kentucky Theater, or www.LexTheaterPipes.org. You won't want to miss it!

As always, if you ever need anything, or there's something you find newsworthy you'd like to have in the newsletter, feel free to call, email, or text me any time.

Stay tuned for more exciting programs this year, and thank you to everyone for your support of the Lexington AGO!

James

Our Sympathies

The Lexington AGO extends our deep sympathies to member Anne Crabb and her family in the passing of her husband, George Wade Crabb, on September 10. George was an avid tennis player and was the head reference librarian at ECU until his retirement in 1995. From Anne – “Dear James and the Lexington Chapter of the AGO, It is generously kind of the AGO to support its members during the times of loss. Thank you very much for the beautiful plant. –Anne Crabb”

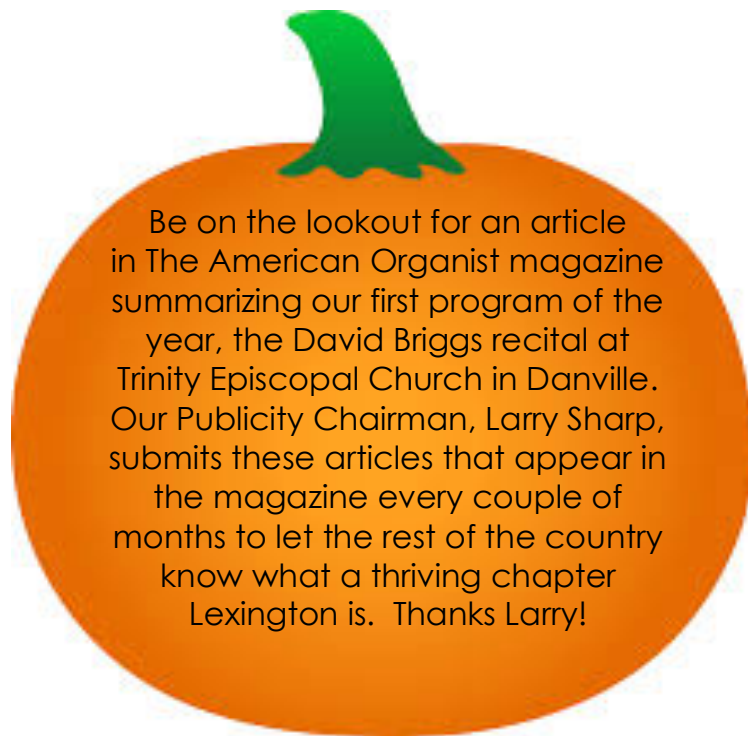

We also extend our sympathies to the Holtkamp family in the recent passing of Walter “Chick” Holtkamp Jr. on August 27. Several Lexington members knew him through his many years of dedicated service to his family business, the Holtkamp Organ Company of Cleveland, Ohio. “Chick” and his family are well connected through the area with many Holtkamp organs in central Kentucky, including Gray Auditorium at Berea College, Memorial Hall at UK, Christ Church Cathedral, and Central Christian Church.

Chapter Updates

By now, you should have received your yearbook. A lot of hard work has gone into the production of this, all thanks to Brian Hunt! Brian has worked diligently for many years to make sure the yearbook is an annual success. An addendum to the yearbook will be sent out by email in a few months, once we have had several new members join that need to be included. Please take some time to look through your yearbook and get to know some of your colleagues.

Do you have a favorite Advent or Christmas arrangement you want to share with the Guild? If so, please email, call, or text James Humlong with the name of the piece, the arranger, and a couple of sentences as to why you like the arrangement. This will go in the November newsletter to give people a few weeks to learn it in time for the Christmas season.

Christmas Recital Fall Fun

Mark DeAlba and Central Baptist Church will host our 4th Annual Christmas Pipes Member Recital on Sunday, December 9th at 2:00pm. In order for this recital to be a success, we need your help! If you would like to share your talents with others in the community, please let James Humlong know as soon as possible. Depending on the number of members playing, each person will play approximately 6 to 8 minutes. Admission is free and open to everyone in the community. Donations will be accepted to help offset costs for the Pedals, Pipes, and Pizza program in February.

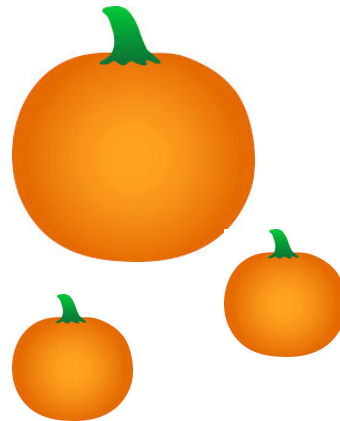

Corny Music Jokes for Halloween –

Q: Why don't skeletons play music in church?

A: Because they don't have any organs!

Q: What is a mummy's favorite kind of music?

A: Wrap!

Count the pumpkins!

How many pumpkins can you find hidden in the newsletter?
The first person to contact James Humlong with the correct answer will win a special prize!
