Dean's Message

Happy February!

I hope you've been enjoying this spring-like weather we've been having. Hopefully it will stick around for a while, although it makes it hard to stay inside and practice!

Our January meeting was a fun evening with friends, and special thanks to Tina Wagoner and First Presbyterian Church for hosting. While our chapter does not have an "official" February program, we have joined with Louisville and the Southern Indiana Chapters to co-sponsor Dorothy Papadakos for a silent film accompaniment and workshop in Louisville on February 21-22. I hope you will take advantage of this, as it will be a great weekend.

Please note that I have made a date error in advertising our March program with Paul Barte, who will be at Maxwell Street Presbyterian Church on March 6-7, not March 13-14 as I had previously displayed in the newsletter. Speaking of, he will be hosting a Masterclass that Saturday morning, so if you would like to prepare your favorite Bach piece (or anything else) for the class, please let me know no later than February 21 so I can give the information to Paul.

Thanks for all you do for the chapter, and I hope to see you around soon!

James

January Program

On Friday, January 31, twelve chapter members gathered at First Presbyterian Church for a potluck dinner followed by a presentation. There was quite a spread for dinner! The presentation was on "The Organist's Music Library Plus", a catalog system designed by Chuck Riden of Arizona. Tina Wagoner was an excellent guide to the software, as she has used the program for several years. The program has a database of over 22,000 pieces of music that you can add to your library catalog, and has features that allow you to search through your music by title, composer, hymn tune, liturgical season, and many more. It also allows you to add your own music if it is not in the catalog. Each person in attendance was given a thumb drive with a free 30-day trial of the program. It was a fun evening for all! Special thanks to Tina Wagoner and First Presbyterian Church for hosting this event.

February Program

Classifieds

Our February program will be a joint program with the Louisville and Southern Indiana AGO Chapters on February 21 and 22 with renowned artist Dorothy Papadakos. She will be performing an accompaniment to the silent film "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" on Friday evening at 8:00pm, and will give a masterclass on improvisation the next morning at 10:00am. Both events will be at Central Presbyterian Church, 318 W. Kentucky St. Louisville, KY 40203 on the 1930 40-rank E. M. Skinner organ. Dinner will take place before the concert Friday at 6:30. For more information, please contact Louisville Dean Daniel Martin at danielmartin66@gmail.com.

Organ looking for a new home: A church in Richmond is looking to part with their 1st Generation Digital Rodgers organ as it is no longer used. All in excellent working condition, just needs speakers. For photos, stoplist, and more information, please contact Jim Fitzpatrick at jrf51ky@gmail.com.

For sale, from Don Seevers: "3 Allen organ bass sub SR5 speakers, $250 each. These are designed to make 16' and 32' stops play the way they should. I have one of these on my Allen MDS70S and my house shakes!" Please call Don Seevers at (859)913-3031 if interested. Photos to the right.

Chapter Updates

It's not too early to begin thinking about attending the 2020 AGO National Convention in Atlanta! The convention will take place July 6-10, 2020. You can find out more about performers, workshops, and other events at www.agoatlanta2020.com.

Grant Holcomb with Wayne Wold discussing chapter programming at the National AGO Leadership Forum in Los Angeles earlier this year

Looking ahead to our April program at Southern Hills UMC, half of the program will be a time for members to share their favorite pieces for organ and solo instrument, so if you have a friend that plays duets with you, bring them along for some fun and sharing in music together. Please let James Humlong know no later than March 31st so he can plan the program accordingly.

Congratulations to Brian Hunt, who after 18.5 years of service to the Catholic Diocese of Lexington, will be retiring! Brian most recently has served as the Director of Music Ministries at Mary Queen of the Holy Rosary Parish, and will retire this month. Please update your email for Brian to bbhuntky@gmail.com, as his email through the diocese will stop working at the end of the month. Enjoy retirement, Brian!
